

A handout distributed by the picketers charged the company's leading officials have "violated basic human rights and labor rights of its employees, subjected employees to illegal in-

Commission. In the last year Channel Co. and Parker White employees voted not to join unions.

Comp Health has four new doctors

Four new physicians have joined the health care staff at Beaufort-Jasper Comprehensive Health Services Inc.

Dr. Mary E. St. John is a general practitioner at the Ridgeland center. She earned her medical degree at Louisiana State University Medical School and completed her internship at the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital in New Orleans, La.

Dr. Don Buswell-Charkow is an internist stationed at the Chelsea center. He received his degree from Boston University Medical School and completed his internship at Boston Veterans Administration Medical Center.

Dr. Harry Neese is a family practitioner stationed at the Hardeeville center. He graduated from Temple University Medical School in 1944 and completed his internship at Wilmington General Hospital, in Delaware.

Dr. Thaddeus Bell is a family practitioner at the Ridgeland center. A graduate of Savannah State College, Bell earned his medical degree from the Medical University of South Carolina. His internship was completed at Emory Practice, in Atlanta, Ga.

BUGGED BY RISING COST

If you'll use Classified ads to buy or sell items regularly, you WILL economize more than ever before. Budget-minded shoppers look to our columns every day for money-saving purchases. And smart folks with items to sell call us first because they know our low-cost ads pull a quick response. You'll find rising costs don't pest-er you so much when you use Classifieds!

The Beaufort Gazette

