

BECOME A COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER ADVOCATE

What does it mean to be an advocate?

- Use your voice to spread the word about the importance of Community Health Centers.
- Stay educated about local, state, and federal policies that may impact Community Health Center patients and communities.
- Show support for the Community Health Center mission and movement.

How do I get started?

- Sign up for the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC) Health Center Advocacy Network.
- Get involved in your state's Community Health Center advocacy through your State Primary Care Association (SPCA).
 - Colorado (CCHN)
 - Montana (MPCA)
 - North Dakota & South Dakota (CHAD)
 - Utah (AUCH)
 - Wyoming (WYPCA)
- Check out the CHAMPS Advocacy Webpages.
 - Community Health Center Program Education & Outreach
 - Education & Advocacy Communications Resources
 - Voter Registration & Ballot Measure Advocacy Resources

QUESTIONS?

Email the NACHC Advocacy Team at grassroots@nachc.org, federalaffairs@nachc.org, or state@nachc.org